

MURDER AT THE AZALEA FESTIVAL (Magnolia Mystery Wilmington Series Book 3)

In Wilmington, the azaleas are blooming, the dogwoods are flowering and the bodies are dropping faster than cherry blossoms on a windy day. But its spring, and Ashley Wilkes, historic preservationist, is much too distracted by love to give a thought to recent homicides, until one occurs at a garden party where shes a guest. When her client is arrested for murder, Ashley tries her darnedest not to get involved. But she knows the actress is innocent. And just who are her most promising suspects? Why, the entire cast of a hot, new locally-produced television series. A fun pre-Festival read. Wilmington Star-News I just wanted to write and tell you how much Ive enjoyed your books. I was an avid reader as a child, but got away from it in later years. Your books brought me back to reading again. I cant wait till your next in the series. Dont ever stop! Thank you for providing me with hours of enjoyment. Kathy Heaphy Id just stumbled across your firstth characters you get to know and love and want to know more about. I thoroughly enjoy the descriptions of Wilmington - it sounds like a place I want to visit someday. To top that off, I am thoroughly enjoying the mysteries themselves - you have excellent plot twists and just when I think Ive figured out whodunit I realize Im wrong. Ive been surprised every time! I wanted to write you to tell you how very much Im enjoying your books. Im eagerly awaiting next weekend when I can continue the series. Theres no way I can start a book in the middle of the week - I just cant put them down! Thank you for sharing your talents in these books! Beth Grimm I have recently started reading your books on the Wilmington series and have fallen in LOVE. I cannot put them down . Needless to say not a lot is getting done at home.Thank you and GOD BLESS Anne Just finished the last of the nine books in your Wilmington Series via my Kindle.

Greatly enjoyed all of them. Are there any more to come? Especially liked the descriptions of the various foods available in Wilmington makes one want to run right up here. Best wishes for future literary efforts. William I LOVE YOUR BOOKS! I just finished reading your ninth book. I was thrilled to see on your web page that you are writing a tenth! Ive come to feel that I really know the characters, and enjoy reading about historic Wilmington. Ive also fallen in love with the characters, and feel as if I know them as friends. I cant wait till your next in the series. Dont ever stop! Kathy I am a huge fan of your books. Ive read all of this series so far. Please dont stop writing this series. Youve done such good character development that the readers want these gals to go on and have new adventures in their married lives. I truly enjoy your stories, please keep going. Thank you, Jan I finished Christmas Wedding yesterday evening and I really loved it. You did a great job with the characters and elements of surprise as well as keeping it believable. I enjoy the historical information you include, it makes me want to come further south the next time we come to the Outer Banks. I have started Murder at the Bellamy Mansion and have to really restrain myself to not let my work go and just sit and read. Mary Ann My mother and I are huge fans of your Magnolia Mysteries book series! We live in Indiana. I have read all of the books that you have written so far, and I was wondering if there will be another book? Thank you for writing your books they have given me a lot of good entertainment! Haley I just finished the last of the Magnolia Mysteries, when are you going to write more? I love the characters and the settings. You cant just leave your readers guessing about what Melanie, Ashley, Scarlett and the rest will do with all the gold coins they found. Please contin
