

Stories for Young People: Oscar Wilde

A uniquely personal collection of Oscar Wildes stories, introduced by his very own grandson. Each tale is filled with wonder and joy. Why, anyone can have common sense, provided that they have no imagination. --From The Remarkable Rocket
The Happy Prince. The Selfish Giant. Anyone who has ever read these and other stories by Oscar Wilde will never forget the magical spell woven by his beautiful words. Now, Merlin Holland, the authors grandson and a distinguished writer and lecturer himself, presents 5 of Wildes finest tales in their entirety. After an elegant and intimate discussion of Wildes life, complete with family reminiscences, Holland introduces each tale with loving care. He helps young readers understand the stories often profound themes and Wildes very special use of language. In addition to Prince and Giant, the compilation includes The Nightingale and the Rose, The Devoted Friend, and The Remarkable Rocket. They are the perfect tales for parents and children to share. Merlin Holland, the only grandson of Oscar Wilde, is an author and journalist living in France. For the last twenty years he has been researching his grandfathers life and works and he now writes, lectures and broadcasts regularly on the subject. His publications include: The Wilde Album (Fourth Estate, 1995) which has been translated into seven languages; The Wit of Oscar Wilde (Folio Society, 1997); The Centenary Edition of the Complete Works of Oscar Wilde (HarperCollins, 1999); The Oscar Wilde Anthology (HarperCollins, 2000); and The Complete Letters of Oscar Wilde (Fourth Estate, 2000). Award-winning Louise Brierley studied art at Manchester Polytechnic and the Royal College of Art. She has illustrated numerous books, including Beauty and the Beast & Other Stories (Viking, 1996) and Songs from Shakespeare (Walker Books, 1993) and her paints have shown in many gallery exhibitions.
