

The Mahjong Spies: Simon Young Book 1

The gripping first Cold War thriller in John Trenga's series about Simon Young, a young man caught between East and West. As the handover of Hong Kong to Communist China grows ever closer, the bitter struggle for power in the Far East has already begun. Soviet forces are determined to undermine Hong Kong's financial stability and to ensure that China inherits nothing but a worthless, empty shell. Pitted against them are the elite of Chinese Intelligence, the Mahjong Brigade, who plan to sabotage the plot, using as their instrument Simon Young - an influential Hong Kong tai-pan. A master in the mannered warfare of global finance, Young is a novice in the hostile world of international espionage. If he is to succeed, he must outwit the most powerful forces in the world.

SUMMARY: Terrorists plan to attack Minnesotas Prairie River Nuclear Power Plant, but theyre not your typical band of Islamic extremists. True, theres an al Qaeda connection. But the heart of the terror cell is homegrown, right here in the United States. James Beck Becker is a former elite U.S. government intelligence operative who has retired to his childhood hometown of Red Wing, Minnesota just six miles down the Mississippi from the Prairie River Power Station. He recognizes connections between seemingly unrelated incidents a murdered agronomy professor, a missing lab assistant, an international cell call, a stolen fertilizer truck, an explosion in the street in front of City Hall but cant piece it together in enough detail to convince government authorities that a larger threat exists. Only his American Indian friend, Bull, will help Beck defuse the threat. So its Beck and Bull versus the best terror cell west of the Mississippi. May the better men win.
